As there were many different manifestations of fascism, especially during the interwar years, there were also many different symbols of Fascist movements. Fascist symbolism typically involved nationalist imagery. :Source

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Fascist_symbolism

Common symbolism of fascist movements

Organized fascist movements have militarist-appearing uniforms for their members; use paramilitaries for political violence against opponents; use national symbols, historical symbols of a nation as symbols of their movement; and use orchestrated rallies for propaganda purposes. Fascist movements are led by a "Leader" (i.e. Duce, Führer, Caudillo...) who is publicly idolized in propaganda as the nation's saviour. A number of fascist movements use a straight-armed salute. The use of symbols, graphics, and other artifacts created by fascist and totalitarian governments has been noted as a key aspect of their propaganda. Most Fascist movements adopted symbols of Ancient Roman or Greek origin. (The Nazi use of Roman Standards during rallies, the Italian adoption of the Fasces, the Spanish "Falange" from the Spanish word for "Phalanx")

Flag of the National Fascist Party

Flag of the National Socialist German Workers' Party (NSDAP), bearing the swastika, the premier symbol of Nazism and remains strongly associated with it in the Western world.

Fascism is a radical, authoritarian nationalist political ideology. It advocates the creation of a totalitarian single-party state that seeks the mass mobilization of a nation through indoctrination, physical education, and family policy (such as eugenics)

Fascists seek to purge forces, ideas, people, and systems deemed to be the cause of decadence and degeneration, and to produce their nation's rebirth based on commitment to the national community based on organic unity, in which individuals are bound together by supra personal connections of ancestry, culture, and blood. Fascists believe that a nation requires strong leadership, singular collective identity, and the will and ability to commit violence and wage war in order to keep the nation strong. Fascist governments forbid and suppress opposition to the state.

Fascism promotes violence and war as actions that create national regeneration, spirit and vitality. It views conflict as a fact of life that is responsible for all human progress. It exalts militarism as providing positive transformation in society, in providing spiritual renovation, education, instilling of a will to dominate in people's character, and creating national comradeship through military service. Fascists commonly utilize paramilitary organizations for violent attacks on opponents, or to overthrow a political system. :Source

<http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Fascism> does anything you just read sound familiar? It will become more clear as I continue to explain from the research I've done. The above page was a brief introduction of Fascist symbolism to get you the reader familiar with this symbolism and meaning of the system and how it works. As I continue to show evidence of this very system is affecting our lives till this day without you even knowing about it. Communism/

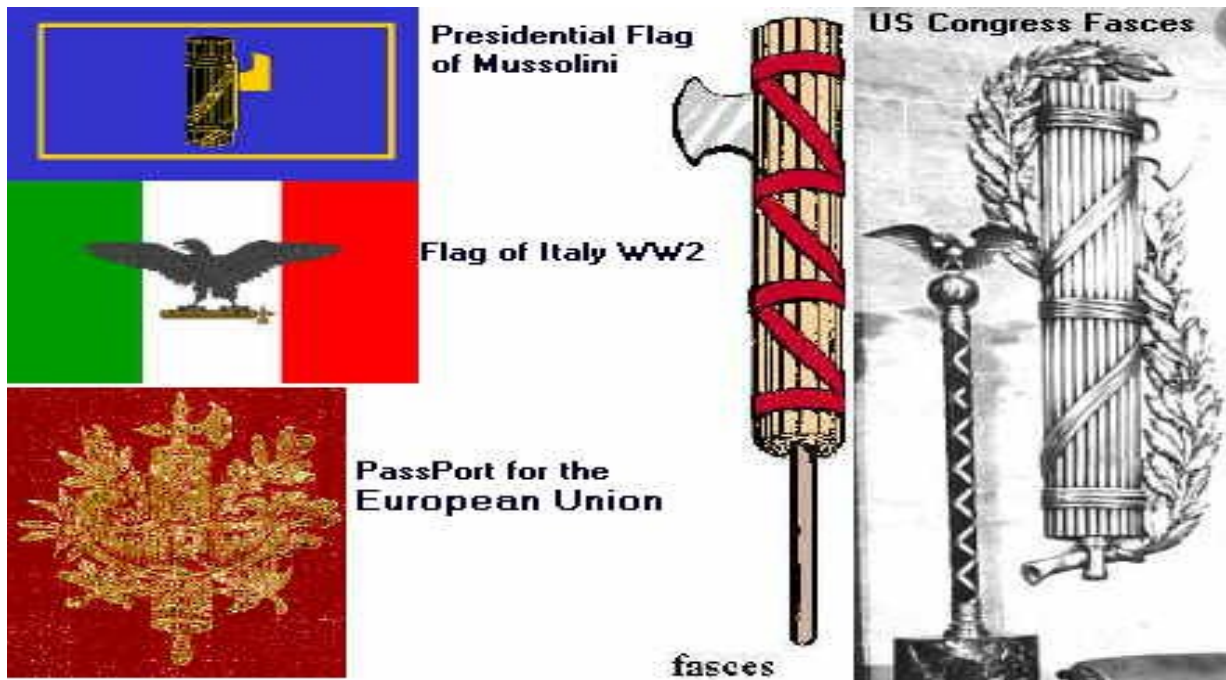

Socialism/Fascism are all part of the same tree just different branches. These systems are power from the top down meaning the government controls everything like the news, what type of car you can drive, healthcare, food, your property, schools and the information your children receives while in school free speech zones etc. In this system there are no limits to government restraining itself. This is truly a tyrannical system to enslave the population it rules over where people have no rights unless the government grants you those rights. As a human being no matter if you believe in god or not god gave you your rights not the government. I feel you should always have a choice to do what you want as long as you don't hurt any one in the process. No one man can take those rights no matter what law is written. Just because something is made a law that doesn't mean its right. Look at all the damage these systems have hurt humanity from Hilter to Mussolini to Mao to Stalin how many people have they killed or maimed under their rule, millions. Our founding fathers knew this they studied different systems to the find the right one to create the United States of America. What they came up with was a republic, a system off the Dutch model of government. A system of power from the bottom up meaning we the people have the power a system where you have a choice a system where everybody will be heard and the government will be restrained by the power of the constitution. I'm gonna give you an example, let say the United States was a mansion and you had servants (politicians) would you let your servant dictate to you what you can and can not do in your own house. No, but that is exactly what's happening in our country the servants (politicians) are out of control and running a muck..They are not listening to we the people our politicians are being control by another entity.

A quote from former president Woodrow Wilson "I have unwittingly ruined my country. A great industrial nation is controlled by it's system of credit...We have come to be one of the worst ruled, one of the most completely controlled and dominated Governments in the civilized world, no longer a Government by free opinion, no longer a Government of conviction and vote of the majority, but, a Government by opinion and the duress of a small group of dominant men. There is a power so organized, so subtle, so watchful, so interlocked, so complete, so pervasive that prudent men better not speak above their breath when they speak in condemnation of it". This is why we have to pay attention to things that really matter like family and politics not sports or TV shows or anything they (the people in control) put in our faces to keep us preoccupied because whatever laws, they (government) pass affects all of us. The people in control have built this society of lies and deception to control humanity to hide certain information the truth from us. This information is available thanks to the internet. Information they've known, we now know. That's why they're trying to control the internet. What I'm about to reveal will shock your very foundation. There are elements of fascism in the United States. I will show proof. We have lost our way. Our country and the world is being controlled by a invisible force behind a curtain the people you are shown on TV in government are just puppets The people you elect are put there to not change things for the betterment of the people, but they're put there to keep the same screwed up and upside down way. The same people controlling the world are helping elect these people by fundraising for there campaigns because both parties in the United States are bought and paid for and controlled from the beginning. I've been doing a lot of research over the past two and a half to three years on this very subject. To some it might be unbelievable, but its all unfortunately true. I am fully awake and I thank god for that. I encourage everyone reading this document to do your own research and you will find what I found, the truth, It's on the internet for free. Thank god for the internet. Lets all protect this great tool called the internet.

Where would we be without it. The elite are trying very hard to control it and we can not let that happen. This country was built on principles of freedom for all. It is vital for us to pay attention and be aware of what's going on. Be mindful about what our politicians are up to. TV main stream news is not going to inform you they are also controlled by the elite. They pay and own these people so they can not be trusted. It's propaganda filtered news the main stream media hides the truth. There is a congressman from Texas, Ron Paul. He running for president in 2012. He ran in past years with little or no coverage on the main stream, they are trying to suppress his message but its not working This year is different. The economy is in shambles, the government is to big and over stepping its constitutional boundaries, our countries debt is out of control. Everything he has been talking about for the past 30 years is coming true about the federal reserve how they facilitate the wars how they cause inflation which devalues our dollar which in turn creates higher prices for food gasoline cloths etc.....Ron Paul understands what the founders of this country intended he understands power from the bottom up he has written about it in book like / Gold, Peace, and Prosperity / the Revolution a Manifesto / End the Fed / Liberty Defined 50 Essential Issues That Affect Our freedom just to name a few, I've learned anything the media says believe the opposite so if the media say the economy is fine it's not if they're not giving Ron Paul coverage that means he's the right man for the job it's his time in 2012, he's been right for all these years look at his record youtube. him find the truth for yourself.

Fascist Symbolism In America Part II

by Anonymous
Updated March 30 2014

Now that you've been shown this shocking truth that fascist run our country the question should be. How did this happen? We weren't paying attention. This was not done over night. It was done in small steps without you noticing it. Did you notice it? Because I didn't, some people don't seem to understand the magnitude of the situation that we as a country are in. This system is a totalitarian system of government your every move is being watched and monitored, complete government control, which is what's going on in our country. There are cameras on streets in most of the United States, and the TSA is groping innocent people at the airport. There's genic manipulation of food (GMO) and population control, think about all the atrocities. These dictators have committed mass killing of human beings in and out of concentration camps. There's this legislative bill called Rex 84 H.R. 645 National Emergency Centers Establishment Act that the U.S. government has on the books. source:.

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Rex_84

Oliver North Questioned - Rex 84 Exposed During Iran Contra
watch you tube VIDEO BELOW

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Ug0IL7k3elQ&>

Why the secrecy Mr north tell me if that doesn't sound like a plan for Concentration Camps for Americans. If we don't realize what these systems do to people. this will be our fate and our children's fate. This is why you cannot give the government complete power because they always abuse it. Here is a quotation by John Emerich Edward Dalberg Acton, " Power tends to corrupt, and absolute power corrupts absolutely. Great men are almost always bad men." I explained in part one of Fascist Symbolism in America communism / socialism / fascism / are one tree but just different branches of it. Hitler was a socialist he killed millions of people under that system Stalin and Mao were communist and how many people did they kill. Mussolini was a fascist and he teamed up with Hitler. All of these people were ruthless murders under these totalitarian systems.

One of the first things Hitler did in his rise to power was disarming the people. All guns were confiscated. These are the first signs of a dictatorship now. Why would they do this, they know if the people were armed, they could not dominate the masses. See if the German people were armed, and they didn't like what Hitler was up to they would fight back and the Nazi party would've been destroyed. That is the main reason the founders of the United States put in the bill or rights that we all have the right to keep and bear arms to protect us against a totalitarian form of government. Some people think the right to keep and bear arms is only for hunting purposes or to protect yourself, but it is to protect the country from a dictatorship. The fact is we should've never been involved in WWI or WWII if Hitler had tried to invade the United States we would've kicked his ass because the whole country would've been armed. Just like we did to Britain during the Revolutionary War. In its day pre-Revolutionary War Britain was the super power of the world and the people of America kicked their asses. That's right be proud of that farmers working men horse tenders regular people kicked Britains ass the world power of that time that was major at that time and still is to me.

Military-industrial Complex Speech, Dwight D. Eisenhower, 1961

Public Papers of the Presidents, Dwight D. Eisenhower, 1960, p. 1035- 1040

My fellow Americans:

Three days from now, after half a century in the service of our country, I shall lay down the responsibilities of office as, in traditional and solemn ceremony, the authority of the Presidency is vested in my successor.

This evening I come to you with a message of leave-taking and farewell, and to share a few final thoughts with you, my countrymen.

Like every other citizen, I wish the new President, and all who will labor with him, Godspeed. I pray that the coming years will be blessed with peace and prosperity for all.

Our people expect their President and the Congress to find essential agreement on issues of great moment, the wise resolution of which will better shape the future of the Nation.

My own relations with the Congress, which began on a remote and tenuous basis when, long ago, a member of the Senate appointed me to West Point, have since ranged to the intimate during the war and immediate post-war period, and, finally, to the mutually interdependent during these past eight years.

In this final relationship, the Congress and the Administration have, on most vital issues, cooperated well, to serve the national good rather than mere partisanship, and so have assured that the business of the Nation should go forward. So, my official relationship with the Congress ends in a feeling, on my part, of gratitude that we have been able to do so much together.

II.

We now stand ten years past the midpoint of a century that has witnessed four major wars among great nations. Three of these involved our own country. Despite these holocausts America is today the strongest, the most influential and most productive nation in the world. Understandably proud of this pre-eminence, we yet realize that America's leadership and prestige depend, not merely upon our unmatched material progress, riches and military strength, but on how we use our power in the interests of world peace and human betterment.

III.

Throughout America's adventure in free government, our basic purposes have been to keep the peace; to foster progress in human achievement, and to enhance liberty, dignity and integrity among people and among nations. To strive for less would be unworthy of a free and religious people. Any failure traceable to arrogance, or our lack of comprehension or readiness to sacrifice would inflict upon us grievous hurt both at home and abroad.

Progress toward these noble goals is persistently threatened by the conflict now engulfing the world. It commands our whole attention, absorbs our very beings. We face a hostile ideology -- global in scope, atheistic in character, ruthless in purpose, and insidious in method. Unhappily the danger is poses' promises to be of indefinite duration. To meet it successfully, there is called for, not so much the emotional and transitory sacrifices of crisis, but rather those which enable us to carry forward steadily, surely, and without complaint the burdens of a prolonged and complex struggle -- with liberty the stake. Only thus shall we remain, despite every provocation, on our charted course toward permanent peace and human betterment.

Crises there will continue to be. In meeting them, whether foreign or domestic, great or small, there is a recurring temptation to feel that some spectacular and costly action could become the miraculous solution to all current difficulties. A huge increase in newer elements of our defense; development of unrealistic programs to cure every ill in agriculture; a dramatic expansion in basic and applied research -- these and many other possibilities, each possibly promising in itself, may be suggested as the only way to the road we wish to travel.

But each proposal must be weighed in the light of a broader consideration: the need to maintain balance in and among national programs -- balance between the private and the public economy, balance between cost and hoped for advantage -- balance between the clearly necessary and the comfortably desirable; balance between our essential requirements as a nation and the duties imposed by the nation upon the individual; balance between actions of the moment and the national welfare of the future. Good judgment seeks balance and progress; lack of it eventually finds imbalance and frustration.

The record of many decades stands as proof that our people and their government have, in the main, understood these truths and have responded to them well, in the face of stress and threat. But threats, new in kind or degree, constantly arise. I mention two only.

IV.

A vital element in keeping the peace is our military establishment. Our arms must be mighty, ready for instant action, so that no potential aggressor may be tempted to risk his own destruction.

Our military organization today bears little relation to that known by any of my predecessors in peacetime, or indeed by the fighting men of World War II or Korea.

Until the latest of our world conflicts, the United States had no armaments industry. American makers of plowshares could, with time and as required, make swords as well. But now we can no longer risk emergency improvisation of national defense; we have been compelled to create a permanent armaments industry of vast proportions. Added to this, three and a half million men and women are directly engaged in the defense establishment. We annually spend on military security more than the net income of all United States corporations.

This conjunction of an immense military establishment and a large arms industry is new in the American experience. The total influence -- economic, political, even spiritual -- is felt in every city, every State house, every office of the Federal government. We recognize the imperative need for this development. Yet we must not fail to comprehend its grave implications. Our toil, resources and livelihood are all involved; so is the very structure of our society.

In the councils of government, we must guard against the acquisition of unwarranted influence, whether sought or unsought, by the military-industrial complex. The potential for the disastrous rise of misplaced power exists and will persist.

We must never let the weight of this combination endanger our liberties or democratic processes. We should take nothing for granted. Only an alert and knowledgeable citizenry can compel the proper meshing of the huge industrial and military machinery of defense with our peaceful methods and goals, so that security and liberty may prosper together.

Akin to, and largely responsible for the sweeping changes in our industrial-military posture, has been the technological revolution during recent decades.

In this revolution, research has become central; it also becomes more formalized, complex, and costly. A steadily increasing share is conducted for, by, or at the direction of, the Federal government.

Today, the solitary inventor, tinkering in his shop, has been overshadowed by task forces of scientists in laboratories and testing fields. In the same fashion, the free university, historically the fountainhead of free ideas and scientific discovery, has experienced a revolution in the conduct of research. Partly because of the huge costs involved, a government contract becomes virtually a substitute for intellectual curiosity. For every old blackboard there are now hundreds of new electronic computers.

The prospect of domination of the nation's scholars by Federal employment, project allocations, and the power of money is ever present * and is gravely to be regarded.

Yet, in holding scientific research and discovery in respect, as we should, we must also be alert to the equal and opposite danger that public policy could itself become the captive of a scientific technological elite.

It is the task of statesmanship to mold, to balance, and to integrate these and other forces, new and old, within the principles of our democratic system -- ever aiming toward the supreme goals of our free society.

V.

Another factor in maintaining balance involves the element of time. As we peer into society's future, we -- you and I, and our government -- must avoid the impulse to live only for today, plundering, for our own ease and convenience, the precious resources of tomorrow. We cannot mortgage the material assets of our grandchildren without risking the loss also of their political and spiritual heritage. We want democracy to survive for all generations to come, not to become the insolvent phantom of tomorrow.

VI.

Down the long lane of the history yet to be written America knows that this world of ours, ever growing smaller, must avoid becoming a community of dreadful fear and hate, and be instead, a proud confederation of mutual trust and respect.

Such a confederation must be one of equals. The weakest must come to the conference table with the same confidence as do we, protected as we are by our moral, economic, and military strength. That table, though scarred by many past frustrations, cannot be abandoned for the certain agony of the battlefield.

Disarmament, with mutual honor and confidence, is a continuing imperative. Together we must learn how to compose differences, not with arms, but with intellect and decent purpose. Because this need is so sharp and apparent I confess that I lay down my official responsibilities in this field with a definite sense of disappointment. As one who has witnessed the horror and the lingering sadness of war -- as one who knows that another war could utterly destroy this civilization which has been so slowly and painfully built over thousands of years -- I wish I could say tonight that a lasting peace is in sight.

Happily, I can say that war has been avoided. Steady progress toward our ultimate goal has been made. But, so much remains to be done. As a private citizen, I shall never cease to do what little I can to help the world advance along that road.

So -- in this my last good night to you as your President -- I thank you for the many opportunities you have given me for public service in war and peace. I trust that in that service you find some things worthy; as for the rest of it, I know you will find ways to improve performance in the future.

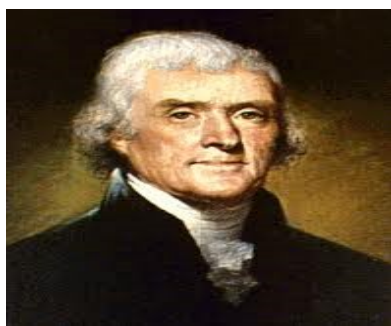

You and I -- my fellow citizens -- need to be strong in our faith that all nations, under God, will reach the goal of peace with justice. May we be ever unswerving in devotion to principle, confident but humble with power, diligent in pursuit of the Nation's great goals.

To all the peoples of the world, I once more give expression to America's prayerful and continuing aspiration:

We pray that peoples of all faiths, all races, all nations, may have their great human needs satisfied; that those now denied opportunity shall come to enjoy it to the full; that all who yearn for freedom may experience its spiritual blessings; that those who have freedom will understand, also, its heavy responsibilities; that all who are insensitive to the needs of others will learn charity; that the scourges of poverty, disease and ignorance will be made to disappear.

from the earth, and that, in the goodness of time, all peoples will come to live together in a peace guaranteed by the binding force of mutual respect and love.

Eisenhower Farewell Address military-industrial complex speech below. http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=CWiIYW_fBfY

A quote by Thomas Jefferson “Peace, commerce, and honest friendship with all nations entangling alliances with none.” Why did he say this? Because entangling alliances breeds corruption and total government control breeds tyranny when there are alliances with other countries. They influence your government officials into doing things they wouldn't otherwise this also stems from greed paying off politicians to pass legislation saying is for the good of the people but in reality, is not and if the people don't go along with it. They'll go to extreme measures like

Problem-Reaction-Solution: False Flag Attacks

False-flag attacks are an example of the political technique known as Problem-Reaction Solution.

The most popular type of false-flag attack is where a government actually carries out an attack, such as a terrorist attack, against its own people, then blames it on a foreign or domestic enemy. The public demand the government take action against the apparent perpetrator, and the government willingly obliges by starting a war against their chosen enemy and/or instituting domestic police state measures.

Sometimes, a government need not carry out the attack itself. It can provoke and then facilitate an attack carried out by a real enemy, so that it can then justify a declaration of war on the basis that "the enemy fired the first shot.

There are even instances where there was no attack at all. These are known as fabricated attacks.

The truth is concealed from the public, and only emerges years or decades later.

"Why, of course, the people don't want war . . . But it is always a simple matter to drag the people along . . . That is easy. All you have to do is to tell them they are being attacked, and denounce the pacifists for lack of patriotism and exposing the country to danger. It works the same in any country."

Herman Goering Nazi Party

That sounds familiar after 9/11 didn't the media say if you're not for the wars you're unpatriotic. Wow it all make sense when the pieces are put together.

Historical False-Flag, Facilitated or Fabricated Attacks

The following false-flag, facilitated, or fabricated attacks are now historical facts, documented and admitted, beyond dispute.

The Burning of Rome, AD64, Emperor Nero's power was being threatened by the growth of Christianity. He wanted some way to eliminate his enemy, so he ordered that Rome be set on fire, so that he could blame it on the Christians. Seeing the Christians as a threat, the Roman citizens persecuted the Christians, and Nero's power was safe.

The USS Maine Incident, 1898, The United States government sought to invade the Philippines and end Spanish colonial rule of the islands. But they knew the American public would not accept a war unless they were convinced that the Spanish attacked the U.S. So the USS Maine was blown up and the attack blamed on the Spanish.

The Assassination of Franz Ferdinand, 1914, the event that started World War I, was an event orchestrated by British and French intelligence services.

The Sinking of RMS Lusitania, 1917, United States President Woodrow Wilson wanted to get his country involved in World War One. But he knew the American public would not accept a war unless they were convinced they were under attack. So the passenger ship RMS Lusitania was packed with explosives and sent into German controlled waters without protection. It was sunk and a million Americans signed up to fight World War One.

The Manchurian Incident, 1931, The Japanese government sought to invade the whole Manchuria region of China, but not wanting to be seen as the aggressors, they dynamited a section of their own railroad at Mukden, in southern Manchuria. The Japanese army invaded Manchuria, and began a conflict with China that escalated into full-scale war in 1937.

The Reichstag Fire, 1933, Just a month after being elected Chancellor of Germany, Hitler wanted to begin turning Germany into a police state and establish himself as dictator. The Nazis set fire to the Reichstag, German parliament, and blamed it on a mentally ill Dutch communist terrorist. This event provided the justification Hitler needed to begin the Nazis 12 year reign of terror in Germany.

"An evil exists that threatens every man, woman and child of this great nation. We must take steps to ensure our domestic security and protect our homeland." - Adolf Hitler

The Gleiwitz Incident, 1939, After seizing Austria and Czechoslovakia, the Nazis set their sights on Poland. But the German people would not support an invasion of Poland, because they did not consider them a threat. In Operation Himmler, a prisoner was dressed in Polish army uniforms, taken to the Polish border and shot. The staged event was presented as a Polish sneak attack on Germany. After this incident, the German people supported an invasion of Poland.

The Attack on Pearl Harbor, 1941, The US Administration of FDR sought to involve America in World War II. But the American people wanted to stay out of it. So the Administration provoked Japan, in the hope that they would attack the U.S. The plan worked, and FDR made sure that the attacks took place successfully and had the maximum effect and impact. Believing that it was a surprise and unprovoked attack by the Japanese at Pearl Harbor, Americans now supported U.S. entry into the war.

Operation Ajax, 1953, Democratically elected President Mossadeq of Iran was unsympathetic to Western oil interests. So the CIA and MI6 orchestrated a revolt against among the Iranian people. False-flag attack - including the bombing of a religious leader, attacks on a mosque, and machine-gunning of civilians - were carried out by the CIA and blamed on Mossadeq to turn his people against him. He was successfully overthrown and replaced by a U.S.-backed Shah who began a reign of terror in the country which lasted 25 years. The U.S. then repeated this technique of overthrowing a foreign leader over and over in countries throughout the world.

Operation Gladio, 1956-1990, A decades-long covert campaign of terrorism and deceit, in Italy and other nations, directed by the intelligence services of the West, against their own populations. Hundreds of innocent people were killed or maimed in terrorist attacks - on train stations, supermarkets, cafes, offices, schools, school buses, etc - which were then blamed on "leftist subversives" or other political opponents. The purpose was to demonize designated enemies and frighten the public into supporting ever-increasing powers for government leaders and their elitist cronies. It was known as the "strategy of tension".

Operation Northwoods, 1962, A secret plan drawn up by the U.S. Joint Chiefs of Staff and signed by the Secretary of Defense, for carrying out a variety of false-flag terrorist attacks which could be blamed on Cuba to provide a pretext for invading that country. The plan - which included blowing up U.S. ships and army bases, starting fires, staging riots, carrying out terror campaigns, and hijacking and shooting down airliners - were rejected by President Kennedy. The plan was declassified in 1998.

The Gulf of Tonkin Incident, 1964, President Johnson needed a pretext in order to commit the American people to an expanding covert war in South-East Asia. On August 2nd Western news media reported that a U.S. destroyer, the Maddox, in the Gulf of Tonkin, had been attacked by three Vietnamese PT boats. Two days later the Maddox was said to have been attacked again. Documents declassified in 2005 reveal that in fact on August 2nd the Maddox had fired the first shots, and that the alleged events of August 4th never even took place.

The Attack on USS Liberty, 1967, During the Six Day War between Israel and Arab countries, the U.S. destroyer USS Liberty was sent into the eastern Mediterranean, off the coast of Israel. The plan was to use Israeli forces to attack and sink the ship, killing all it's crew, and then blame the attack on Egypt, to justify the involvement of the U.S. in the war. The Liberty was attacked by three unmarked Israeli fighter bombers, as well as three Israeli torpedo boats. The attack lasted for over 3 hours; help was sent by nearby U.S. aircraft carriers, but incredibly the help was personally recalled by President Johnson, who declared "I want that ship going to the bottom". The attack would have succeeded, but it was spotted by a Russian spy plane, and the Israeli attack was called off. The crew survivors were sworn to secrecy.

The Moscow Apartment bombings, 1999,

The September 11 Attacks, 2001, 3 World Trade Center buildings were destroyed in covert controlled demolitions as part of a coordinated attack orchestrated by agencies of the U.S. government. The attacks - which also involved hijacking four planes, two of which were flown into the Twin Towers, one into the Pentagon and one into a field in Pennsylvania, while NORAD was rendered ineffective - were blamed on Islamic extremists. The subsequent "War on Terror" provided the justification for the invasions of Iraq and Afghanistan, and increased police state measures in countries throughout the world.

"My administration has focused the nation's resources on our highest priority - protecting our citizens and our homeland."

- George Bush

The Madrid Bombings, 2004, The bombing of four trains was blamed on Al Qaeda terrorists, but the government now admits that the bombers had no ties to Al Qaeda. Every one of the bombers had intimate links to the Spanish security services. The lead bomber was connected to the Madrid Bomb Squad.

The London Bombings, 2005, A coordinated attack on three London tube trains and one bus, orchestrated by agencies of the UK government. The attacks were blamed on Islamic extremists and used to further justify, and intensify, the "War on Terror".

The Attack on South Ossetia, 2008, On August 8th, Western mainstream news reported that Russia had sneak attacked South Ossetia, a region of Georgia. Evidence quickly emerged however that Georgia had attacked it's own region, in an attempt to put down the growing independence movement. The South Ossetians wanted to re-united with North Ossetia as part of the Russian Federation. Russian forces only entered the region after the South Ossetians and Russian peacekeepers in the region had been attacked by Georgia, who had support from the U.S. and Israel.

The New World Order

"We shall have World Government, whether or not you like it."

James P Warburg, founder of the Council on Foreign Relations
Problem-Reaction-Solution is being conducted at a global level, by a global elite. Their aim is to create a world government.

National institutions are continuously giving power away to super national institutions, and simultaneously super national institutions are giving power away to global institutions. Power is constantly being transferred to the World Bank, the World Court (ICC), the World Governing Body (UN), the World Army (UN "Peacekeepers"), the World Trade Organization (WTO), and a variety of global regulatory bodies. There are calls for a World Currency. There is even a World Religion (Environmentalism).

This is not happening by accident or happenstance. It is being carefully orchestrated by the global elite - calling themselves the New World Order - who intend to control the world government. They have a long-planned, long-term agenda, which is nearing its final stages. The collectivist mindset, the lack of education in politics, economics and history, the big lies and the grand myths we see today have been deliberately created and perpetuated by the global elite so that they can achieve their goals.

The Plan Of The Global Elite For A One World Government Was Simple:

1. Obtain economic control of nations using the practice of central banking - control the money supply, support fractional-reserve banking, eliminate the gold standard, and over time create supranational and global currencies.

2. By controlling the money supply, buy up national governments, media and educational establishments and legal systems, and over time create supranational and global institutions to control the national institutions.

3. Take advantage of the collectivist mindset and the technique of Problem-Reaction-Solution by creating big, powerful, centralised governments that pervade all areas of society; use government power as a partner of businesses and corporations ("fascism") or use direct control ("communism"), and over time transfer these big government powers to supranational and global entities.

Global problems require global solutions

- a motto of the global elite, voiced by national government leaders such as:

* George W Bush (about terrorism)

- * Al Gore (about climate change)
- * Gordon Brown (about the financial system)

New World Order

The Structure

The New World Order is structured like a giant pyramid. At the very top, almost entirely hidden from few, are a few families such as the Rothschild and the Rockefellers and various royal families. These families control globalist institutions such as the Bilderberg Group, the most powerful of them, the Trilateral Commission, and the Club of Rome.

Below them, and guided by them, are the national steering groups such as the Council on Foreign Relations (U.S.) and the Royal Institute of International Affairs (U.K.).

World leaders from governments, banks, industry, corporations, religions, academia, the media, and other powerful institutions usually belong to or are closely connected with one or more than one of these groups.

U.S. government members of the Bilderberg Group, for example, include Bill and Hilary Clinton, Donald Rumsfeld, Henry Kissinger, Condoleeza Rice, Zbigniew Brzezinski, Paul Wolfowitz and Philip Zelikow. Many of President Obama's cabinet appointees are members.

Leaders of other nations who have been Bilderberg members include Gordon Brown, Tony Blair, John Major, Margaret Thatcher, and Edward Heath (all U.K.), Stephen Harper, Paul Martin, and Jean Chretien (all Canada), and Angela Merkel, Gerhard Schroder, Helmut Kohl, and Helmut Schmidt (all Germany).

Disguising that their marching orders come from international groups and clubs, the members are able to control their respective institutions through the process of compartmentalization. People working within an institution - even people very near to the top - are not aware of the true goals of the institution, or the role of that institution as part of the larger plan. Centralization of power, a high degree of power, and a hierarchical structure of institutions enables this process of compartmentalization to work most effectively.

Frederick Hayek, in his book The Road To Serfdom explains how in a centrally planned society, those with ruthless ambition and unceasing loyalty to superiors are the people who inevitably attain governmental power. He shows how a planned society - borne out of a collectivist mindset - always leads to bigger and bigger government, less liberty, less peace, justice and equality, and less prosperity. The means by which this is achieved is through the creation and widespread belief in big lies and grand myths. The globalist institutions are head-hunters. They pick out people capable of being leaders, and they corrupt them. Loyalty is exchanged for promises of power. Those who cannot be corrupted rarely reach positions of power.

"Power corrupts,
and absolute power
corrupts absolutely."

Lord Acton

All we need is the right major crisis and the nations will accept the New World Order."Don't let this man's age and looks fool you. He is a ruthless murder.He hates humanity. He and his cohort's lusts for power and control over all humanity a quote from David Rockefeller "Some even believe we are part of a secret cabal working against the best interests of the United States, characterizing my family and me as 'internationalists' and of conspiring with others around the world to build a more integrated global political and economic structure one world, if you will. If that's the charge, I stand guilty, and I am proud of it." From David Rockefeller's Memoirs

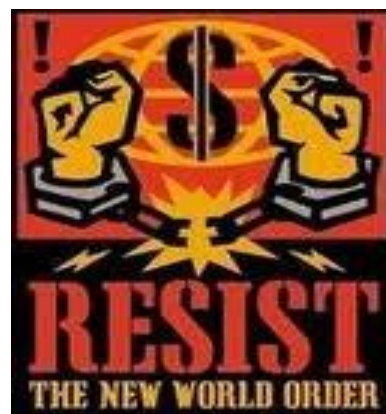

David Rockefeller proud to be an Internationalist and "Conspirator in Chief" of the Global Empire

"there remains a residuum of original and intelligent people in banking or associated with banking or mentally interested in banking, who do realize that banking plays a very important and interesting part in the world's affairs, who are curious about their own intricate function and disposed towards a scientific investigation of its origins ...

Their enquiries carry them inevitably outside the bankers' habitual field to an examination of the nature, drift, and destiny of the entire economic process."

"You know, gentlemen, that I do not owe any personal income tax. But nevertheless, I send a small check, now and then, to the Internal Revenue Service out of the kindness of my heart."

David Rockefeller (1915-), before a Congressional Committee

The Assassination of John F Kennedy

There is overwhelming evidence that JFK was murdered because he had become a liability for the global elite who placed him into power. In particular, he intended to end covert activities in Vietnam, splinter the CIA, and abolish the Federal Reserve System.

The following video covers just a small fraction of the evidence that he was not killed by a lone gunman, but was taken out by a hit squad working for agencies of the US government.

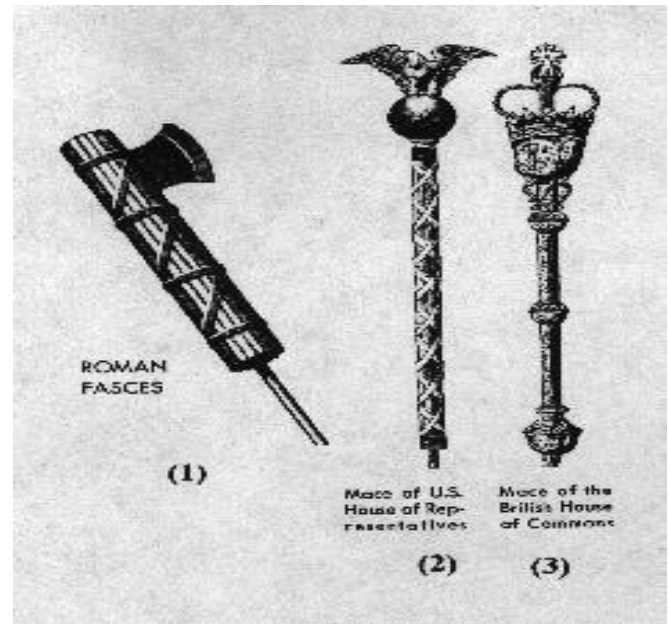

JFK II - The Bush Connection Watch documentary VIDEO BELOW

"The very word "secrecy" is repugnant in a free and open society; and we are as a people inherently and historically opposed to secret societies, to secret oaths and secret proceedings. We decided long ago that the dangers of excessive and unwarranted concealment of pertinent facts far outweighed the dangers which are cited to justify it. Even today, there is little value in opposing the threat of a closed society by imitating its arbitrary restrictions. Even today, there is little value in insuring the survival of our nation if our traditions do not survive with it. And there is very grave danger that an announced need for increased security will be seized upon those anxious to expand its meaning to the very limits of official censorship and concealment. That I do not intend to permit to the extent that it is in my control. And no official of my Administration, whether his rank is high or low, civilian or military, should interpret my words here tonight as an excuse to censor the news, to stifle dissent, to cover up our mistakes or to withhold from the press and the public the facts they deserve to know." "For we are opposed around the world by a monolithic and ruthless conspiracy that relies on covert means for expanding its sphere of influence--on infiltration instead of invasion, on subversion instead of elections, on intimidation instead of free choice, on guerrillas by night instead of armies by day. It is a system which has conscripted vast human and material resources into the building of a tightly knit, highly efficient machine that combines military, diplomatic, intelligence, economic, scientific and political operations. Its preparations are concealed, not published. Its mistakes are buried not headlined. Its dissenters are silenced, not praised. No expenditure is questioned, no rumor is printed, no secret is revealed." "No President should fear public scrutiny of his program. For from that scrutiny comes understanding; and from that understanding comes support or opposition. And both are necessary. I am not asking your newspapers to support the Administration, but I am asking your help in the tremendous task of informing and alerting the American people. For I have complete confidence in the response and dedication of our citizens whenever they are fully informed. I not only could not stifle controversy among your readers-- I welcome it. This Administration intends to be candid about its errors; for as a wise man once said: "An error does not become a mistake until you refuse to correct it." We intend to accept full responsibility for our errors; and we expect you to point them out when we miss them. Without debate, without criticism, no Administration and no country can succeed-- and no republic can survive. That is why the Athenian lawmaker Solon decreed it a crime for any citizen to shrink from controversy. And that is why our press was protected by the First (emphasized) Amendment-- the only business in America specifically protected by the Constitution-- not primarily to amuse and entertain, not to emphasize the trivial and sentimental, not to simply "give the public what it wants"--but to inform, to arouse, to reflect, to state our dangers and our opportunities, to indicate our crises and our choices, to lead, mold educate and sometimes even anger public opinion.

This means greater coverage and analysis of international news-- for it is no longer far away and foreign but close at hand and local. It means greater attention to improved understanding of the news as well as improved transmission. And it means, finally, that government at all levels, must meet its obligation to provide you with the fullest possible information outside the narrowest limits of national security..."And so it is to the printing press--to the recorder of mans deeds, the keeper of his conscience, the courier of his news-- that we look for strength and assistance, confident that with your help man will be what he was born to be: free and independent."

A statue of Cincinnatus in Cincinnati, Ohio, US. The dedication reads: "With one hand he returns the fasces, a symbol of power as appointed dictator of Rome. His other hand holds the plow, as he resumes the life of a citizen and farmer."

The fascist tried to overthrow our government Smedley Darlington Butler went to Senator John McCormack and told him that there was a fascist plot to overthrow President Franklin Roosevelt. Butler claimed that on 1st July 1934, Gerald C. MacGuire a Wall Street bond salesman and Bill Doyle, the department commander of the American Legion in Massachusetts, tried to recruit him to lead a coup against Roosevelt. Butler claimed that the conspirators promised him $30 million in financial backing and the support of most of the media.

Butler pretended to go along with the plot and met other members of the conspiracy. In November 1934 Butler began testifying in secret to the Special Committee on Un-American Activities Authorized to Investigate Nazi Propaganda and Certain Other Propaganda Activities (the McCormack-Dickstein Committee). Butler claimed that the American Liberty League was the main organization behind the plot. He added the main backers were the Du Pont family, as well as leaders of U.S. Steel, General Motors, Standard Oil, Chase National Bank, and Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company.

Butler also named Prescott Bush as one of the conspirators. At the time Bush was along with W. Averell Harriman, E. Roland Harriman and George Herbert Walker, managing partners in Brown Brothers Harriman. Bush was also director of the Harriman Fifteen Corporation. This in turn controlled the Consolidated Silesian Steel Corporation, that owned one-third of a complex of steel-making, coal-mining and zinc-mining activities in Germany and Poland. Friedrich Flick owned the other two-thirds of the operation. Flick was a leading financial supporter of the Nazi Party and in the 1930s donated over seven million marks to the party. A close friend of Heinrich Himmler, Flick also gave the Schutz Staffeinel (SS) 10,000 marks a year.

On 20th November, 1934, the story of the alleged plot was published in the Philadelphia Record and the New York Post. Four days later the McCormack-Dickstein Committee released its preliminary findings and the full-report appeared on 15th February, 1935. The committee reported: "In the last few weeks of the committee's official life it received evidence showing that certain persons had made an attempt to establish a fascist government in this country... There is no question that these attempts were discussed, were planned, and might have been placed in execution when and if the financial backers deemed it expedient."

Although the McCormack-Dickstein Committee claimed they believed Butler's testimony they refused to take any action against the people he named as being part of the conspiracy. Butler was furious and gave a radio interview on 17th February, 1935, where he claimed that important portions of his testimony had been suppressed in the McCormack-Dickstein report to Congress. He argued that the committee, had "stopped dead in its tracks when it got near the top." Butler added: "Like most committees, it has slaughtered the little and allowed the big to escape. The big shots weren't even called to testify. Why wasn't Colonel Grayson M.-P. Murphy, New York broker... called? Why wasn't Louis Howe, Secretary to the President of the United States, called? Why wasn't Al Smith called? And why wasn't General Douglas MacArthur, Chief of Staff of the United States Army, called? And why wasn't Hanford MacNider, former American Legion commander, called? They were all mentioned in the testimony. And why was all mention of these names suppressed from the committee report?"

John L. Spivak, who had been mistakenly given access to the unexpurgated testimony of the people interviewed by the McCormack-Dickstein Committee. He published an article in the New Masses entitled Wall Street's Fascist Conspiracy on 5th February 1935. This included the claim that "Jewish financiers" had been working with "fascist groups" in an attempt to overthrow President Franklin Roosevelt. The article was dismissed as communist propaganda.

In November 1935 Butler wrote an article for the socialist magazine Common Sense: "I spent 33 years and four months in active military service and during that period I spent most of my time as a high class muscle man for Big Business, for Wall Street and the bankers. In short, I was a racketeer, a gangster for capitalism. I helped make Mexico and especially Tampico safe for American oil interests in 1914. I helped make Haiti and Cuba a decent place for the National City Bank boys to collect revenues in. I helped in the raping of half a dozen Central American republics for the benefit of Wall Street. I helped purify Nicaragua for the International Banking House of Brown Brothers in 1902-1912. I brought light to the Dominican Republic for the American sugar interests in 1916. I helped make Honduras right for the American fruit companies in 1903. In China in 1927 I helped see to it that Standard Oil went on its way unmolested."

Butler also published a book entitled War is a Racket (1935). It was a powerful denunciation of war. He wrote: "In the (First) World War a mere handful garnered the profits of the conflict. At least 21,000 new millionaires and billionaires were made in the United States during the World War. That many admitted their huge blood gains in their income tax returns. How many other war millionaires falsified their tax returns no one knows. How many of these war millionaires shouldered a rifle? How many of them dug a trench? How many of them knew what it meant to go hungry in a rat-infested dug-out? How many of them spent sleepless, frightened nights, ducking shells and shrapnel and machine gun bullets? How many of them parried a bayonet thrust of an enemy? How many of them were wounded or killed in battle?"

Smedley Butler continued to campaign against the Military Industrial Complex until his death on 21st June 1940. As I wrote in part I of fascist symbols in america fascist control america in every policy it passes because the elite banker families (Rothschild) (Rockefeller) and every secret society they all control our politicians through money power and promises that when the whole thing collapses they will be protected by them just like the society they've built is a lie there promises are also a lie because there are just pawns in this conspiracy they will also be betrayed by the very people they swore a oath to but they will not understand this until its to late but the elite will also be betrayed by there greed for power and control will be there undoing they think they are all knowing illuminated but there is a higher power that is also guiding them (the elite) the almighty creator of the universe. as im going to continue to explain and connect the dots with excerpts of part I Fascist Symbolism in America Fascism is a radical, authoritarian nationalist political ideology. It advocates the creation of a totalitarian single-party state that seeks the mass mobilization of a nation through indoctrination, physical education, and family policy (such as eugenics) our parties republican and democrat are single-party controlled by the elite banking families so its really a single party yes they each fight for party power to control the senate and the house but there both means to the same end power and control over us both parties brought us down this fascist road now the indoctrination, physical education, and family policy (such as eugenics) this is the department of education and the department of health and human services controlled by the government David Rockefeller as been calling for population control for decades here's an article below and their thousands on the web to read

<http://www.scribd.com/doc/63829366/Population-Control-Worldwide-Urges-David-Rockefeller>

Fascists seek to purge forces, ideas, people, and systems deemed to be the cause of decadence and degeneration, and to produce their nation's rebirth based on commitment to the national community based on organic unity, in which individuals are bound together by supra personal connections of ancestry, culture, and blood. Fascists believe that a nation requires strong leadership, singular collective identity, and the will and ability to commit violence and wage war in order to keep the nation strong. Fascist governments forbid and suppress opposition to the state. Now this organic unity, in which individuals are bound together. There's proof that almost. All presidents and politicians are blood line related former president George W. Bush is related to John Kerry their distant cousins also Obama and Bush and Cheney are also distant cousins just to name a few more recent examples.

. Fascists believe that a nation requires strong leadership, singular collective identity, and the will and ability to commit violence and wage war in order to keep the nation strong.

Now this will shine some light on the sentence before now when president Bush got selected not elected in 2000, he was very unpopular people knew he stole the presidency nobody like him but after 9/11 happened, we all changed everybody loved him because we were attacked and there's so much evidence out there that explains that the whole 9/11 situation was an inside job so many things from that faithful day don't make sense there are countless documentaries stating these facts just to name a few (loose change / 911 Blueprint for Truth the Architecture of Destruction / 911 Explosive Evidence Experts Speak Out) you can find them free online these are truths people need to look into.

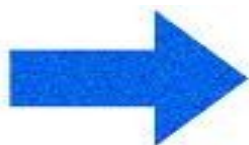

Fascism promotes violence and war as actions that create national regeneration, spirit and vitality. It views conflict as a fact of life that is responsible for all human progress. It exalts militarism as providing positive transformation in society, in providing spiritual renovation, education, instilling of a will to dominate in people's character, and creating national comradeship through military service. Fascists commonly utilize paramilitary organizations for violent attacks on opponents, or to overthrow a political system. :Source

<http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/> Does anything you just read sound familiar? How many wars are we in now. How many political systems has our government overthrown in the past but more recent Afghanistan, Iraq recently in Egypt, Libya, Yemen their countless, and the list goes on. The real question you should ask is who facilitates the funds for all these wars this is the question nobody seems to ask, and it's the most important one the answer is the Federal Reserve Bank. The whole story of how the Federal Reserve Bank was created is in a book called

The Creature From Jekyll Island By G Edward Griffin. It's a private bank that lends the government debt based money not backed by gold or silver like it was before 1913 there is nothing backing

U.S. Naval Base Coronado,
California

currency. That is why our country has trillions of dollars in debt and counting it's impossible to pay it off that's how they get you this is the true secret the elite hide from you. through debt slavery this is how they control your life without you even knowing about. In the past under slavery your masters would cloth you, feed you and house you under modern day slavery you cloth yourself, feed yourself and house yourself and nobody mentions who your master is but I will. It's the Federal Reserve. fascism is a corporate take over a monopoly of monetary system. And government. a countries money system is vital to controlling the country. Some people say its genius the way there implementing certain systems into American society. I say no it's not that hard in fact it's easy to do once you have total control of the money system its cleaver not genius there's a difference and these same elite people like the (Rothschilds) (Rockefellers) also funded a lot of the tyrants in human history like Hitler. There's this documentary that was shown on the history channel called banking on Hitler. It can be found on youtube and there is a book called Wall Street and the Rise of Hitler, By Antony C. Sutton

They also funded communism and that tyrannical system who features tyrants like Lennon Stalin. There is also a book written about this called Wall Street and The Bolshevik Revolution By Antony C. Sutton. These socialist systems claim to help the poor but they do the opposite. Do wall street banker's really care about the poor? You already know the answer to that. How many times have people lost their homes due to their policies? It's all about profit the bottom line not people and Family wall street can care less about main street the federal reserve was created to facilitate the government not the people .they were put there to grow government not shrink it this is there main purpose why do we even have a central bank we don't need one we have a treasury that can create. U.S. NOTES DEBT FREE NOT FEDERAL RESERVE NOTES the federal reserve is counterfeiting united states currency (money) which is unconstitutional they are what you would call a loan shark this is what they truly are if you don't pay what you owe they call there goon squad the IRS and they'll take good care of you they wont break your legs but they will shake you down and steal what you worked hard for and in the process ruin your family cause you'll be going to jail people don't seem to realize how money affects society more important who creates money is even a more serous issue your government does not create your money a private banking cartel does called the federal reserve bank and they own you and me because they own everything. here are some quotes from well known bankers from the passed

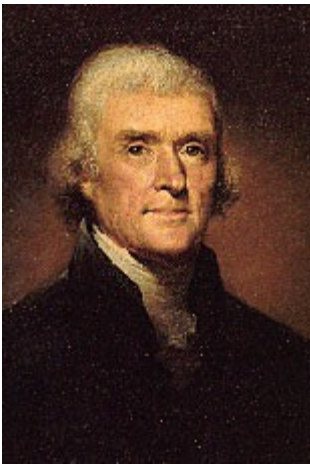

"The bank hath benefit of interest on all moneys which it creates out of nothing. "William Paterson, founder of the Bank of England in 1694,

"Let me issue and control a nation's money and I care not who writes the laws." Mayer Amschel Rothschild (1744-1812), founder of the House of Rothschild.

"The few who understand the system will either be so interested in its profits or be so dependent upon its favors that there will be no opposition from that class, while on the other hand, the great body of people, mentally incapable of comprehending the tremendous advantage that capital derives from the system, will bear its burdens without complaint, and perhaps without even suspecting that the system is inimical to their interests." The Rothschild brothers of London writing to associates in New York, 1863.

"Banking was conceived in iniquity and was born in sin. The Bankers own the Earth. Take it away from them, but leave them the power to create deposits, and with the flick of a pen they will create enough deposits to buy it back again. However, take it away from them, and all the fortunes like mine will disappear, and they ought to disappear, for this world would be a happier and better world to live in. But if you wish to remain slaves of the Bankers and pay for the cost of your own slavery, let them continue to create deposits." Sir Josiah Stamp, President of the Bank of England in the 1920s, the second richest man in Britain.

"I believe that banking institutions are more dangerous to our liberties than standing armies." Thomas Jefferson, US President 1801-9.

"When a government is dependent upon bankers for money, they and not the leaders of the government control the situation, since the hand that gives is above the hand that takes. Money has no motherland; financiers are without patriotism and without decency; their sole object is gain." Napoleon Bonaparte, Emperor of France

"The government should create, issue and circulate all the currency and credits needed to satisfy the spending power of the government and the buying power of consumers. By adoption of these principles, the taxpayers will be saved immense sums of interest. Money will cease to be master and become the servant of humanity." Abraham Lincoln, US President 1861-5. He created government issue money during the American Civil War and was assassinated

. "If the American people ever allow private banks to control issue of their currency, first by inflation, then by deflation, the banks and the corporations will grow up around them, will deprive the people of all property until their children wake up homeless on the continent their fathers conquered. The issuing power should be taken from the banks and restored to the people, to whom it properly belongs."

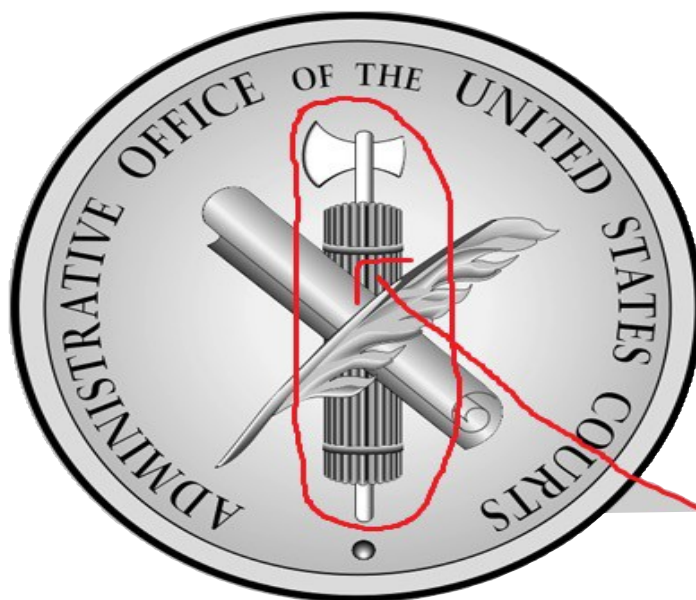

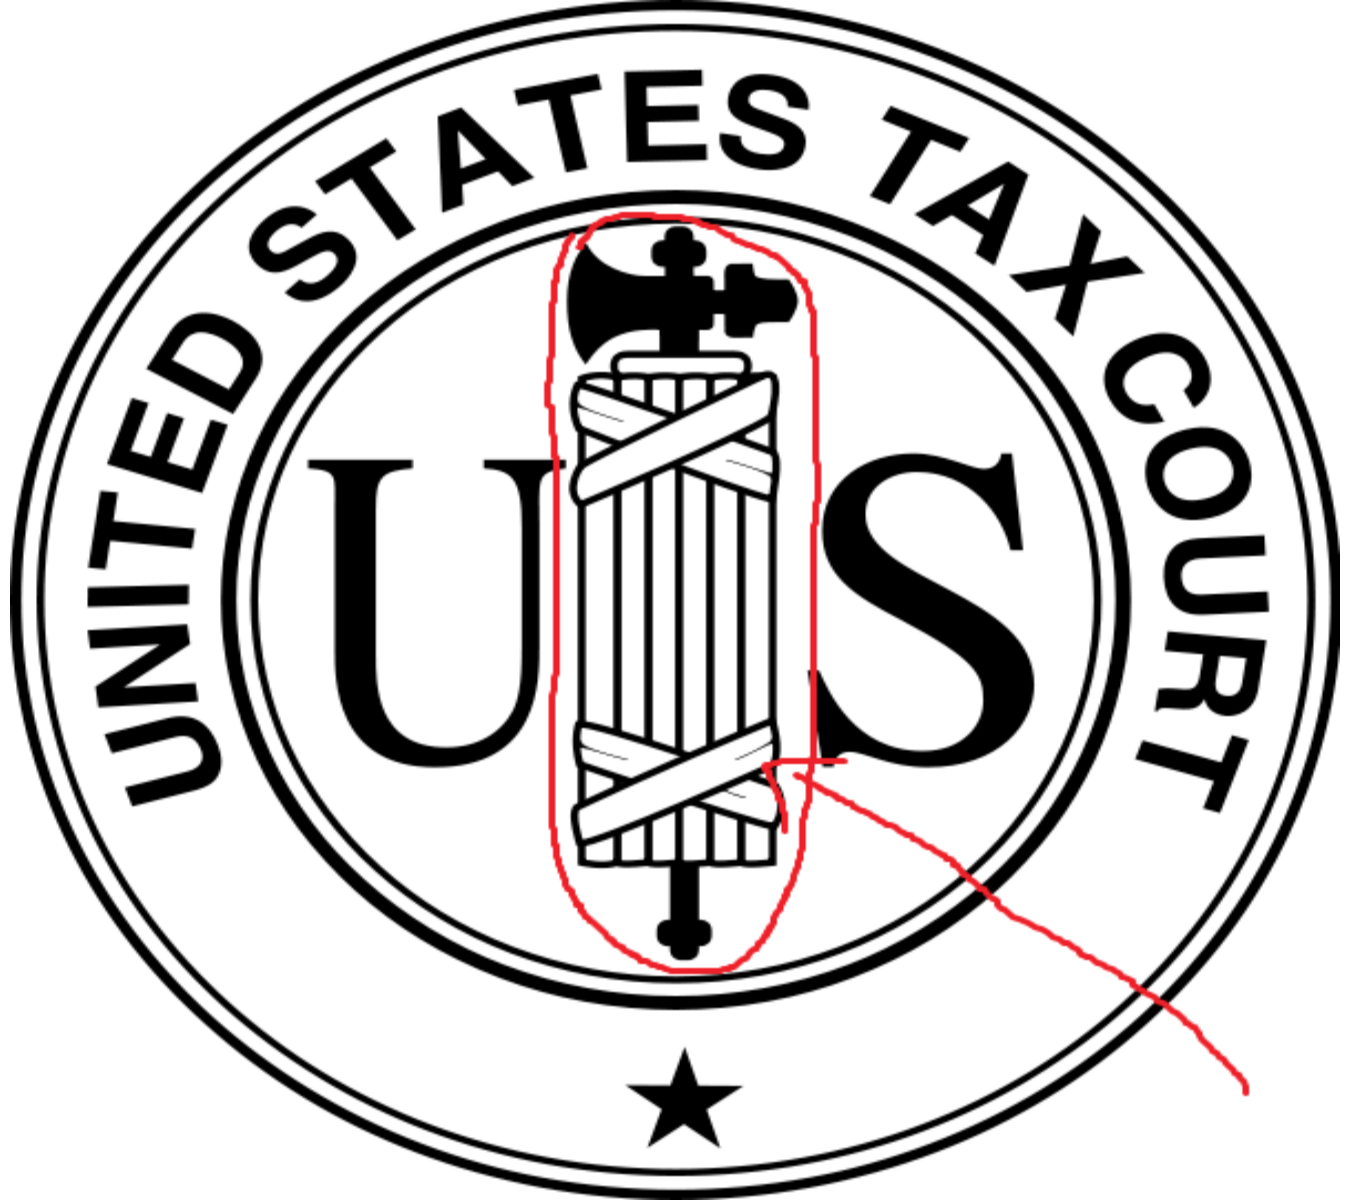

Thomas Jefferson in the debate over The Re-charter of the Bank Bill (1809).

The Thomas Jefferson quote above was the most powerful because he said exactly what's going on his word's ring so true today the secret, they don't want you know is through the control of money. They (the elite) control you. money makes good people do shameful things no matter who you are money I just supposed to be a means of exchange if you were stranded on an island. What would you rather have two billion dollars or two billion pounds of food. money has no value because it doesn't exist the true value is in what you're buying with that money food a car a houses, etc..... think about it money is what people die for murder for lie for cheat for lust steal for Sell drugs for? Something that really has no value it's just paper that's all. Why do people steal? If society didn't put a price tag on everything would people steal? Here's a clip from Zeitgeist Addendum: Imagining a

These changes have to be gradual money it self is the motive for all theses' problems because this is the tool of control they use. people have got to realize this is the most important point of this document. control through the money system they've (the elite) have committed and paid for all theses atrocities. these people are ruthless murders how can these people fund Hitler and sleep at night how can your family fund communism and live with your self how can your lust for power to control humanity make you feel good I just don't understand this thinking I mean just because you can take advantage of someone doesn't mean you should. nature has a way of correcting itself. Jordan maxwell said trust the people in search of truth don't trust people who claim they've found it. what I got out of that was information is ever changing so the search for truth is eternal I think you're supposed to pass down information you've learned so someone can go on there own journey of seeking truth and then share it with others and compare notes and put all the pieces together then continue this journey its eternal.

There are fema camps (concentration camps) they do exist I spoke briefly about them in the beginning of this document I will go deeper into this subject under a fascist dictatorship as you saw during WWII this can be done and will be done but not the way you think since the elite control banking and the flow of money they control how society behaves weather their system collapses or not like they did during the great depression and it's through this they will introduce fema camps they're going mess up society so bad through mass crime looting gangs on streets a massive break down of state and local government you'll be begging to go into a fema camp so there not going to drag you to a fema camp you'll volunteer to go in one but don't forget there's No need to bring your guns to a fema camp cause they'll be armed guards supposedly protecting you from something they created so leave your guns at the door drop them in the fema bin relinquish your right and get ready for fun with the globalist because everything Hitler told his minions to do in Germany in the (concentration camps) was a rehearsal for the fun time they're going to have with you they're already messing with our water putting fluoride in it making test tube food called (GMO's) Hitler used sodium fluoride on Germans to control them and it's also in your tooth paste check out Rex 84 H.R. 645 National Emergency Centers Establishment Act

The Use Of Fluoridation For Mass Mind Control

COUNTERTHINK

The following letter was received by the Lee Foundation for Nutritional Research, Milwaukee Wisconsin, on 2 October 1954, from Mr. Charles Perkins, a chemist:

"I have your letter of September 29 asking for further documentation regarding a statement made in my book, The Truth About Water Fluoridation, to the effect that the idea of water fluoridation was brought to England from Russia by the Russian Communist Kreminoff. "In the 1930's, Hitler and the German Nazi's envisioned a world to be dominated and controlled by a Nazi philosophy of pan-Germanism. The German chemists worked out a very ingenious and far-reaching plan of mass-control which was submitted to and adopted by the German General Staff. This plan was to control the population in any given area through mass medication of drinking water supplies. By this method they could control the population in whole areas, reduce population by water medication that would produce sterility in women, and so on. In this scheme of mass-control, sodium fluoride occupied a prominent place.

"Repeated doses of infinitesimal amounts of fluoride will in time reduce an individual's power to resist domination, by slowly poisoning and narcotizing a certain area of the brain, thus making him submissive to the will of those who wish to govern him. [A convenient light lobotomy]

"The real reason behind water fluoridation is not to benefit children's teeth. If this were the real reason there are many ways in which it could be done that are much easier, cheaper, and far more effective. The real purpose behind water fluoridation is to reduce the resistance of the masses to domination and control and loss of liberty.

"When the Nazis under Hitler decided to go into Poland, both the German General Staff and the Russian General Staff exchanged scientific and military ideas, plans, and personnel, and the scheme of mass control through water medication was seized upon by the Russian Communists because it fitted ideally into their plan to communize the world. ...

"I was told of this entire scheme by a German chemist who was an official of the great IG Farben chemical industries and was also prominent in the Nazi movement at the time. I say this with all the earnestness and sincerity of a scientist who has spent nearly 20 years' research into the chemistry, biochemistry, physiology and pathology of fluorine--any person who drinks artificially fluorinated water for a period of one year or more will never again be the same person mentally or physically."
CHARLES E. PERKINS, Chemist, 2 October 1954.

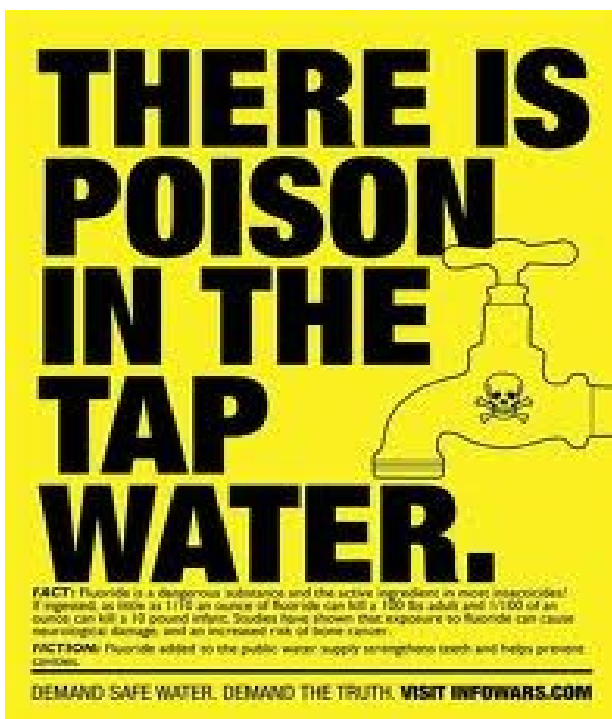

Quoting Einstein's nephew, Dr. E.H. Bronner (a chemist who had also been a prisoner of war during WWII) in a letter printed in The Catholic Mirror, Springfield, MA, January 1952:

"It appears that the citizens of Massachusetts are among the 'next' on the agenda of the water poisoners.

"There is a sinister network of subversive agents, Godless 'intellectual' parasites, working in our country today whose ramifications grow more extensive, more successful and more alarming each new year and whose true objective is to demoralize, paralyze and destroy our great Republic--from within if they can, according to their plan--for their own possession.

The tragic success they have already attained in their long siege to destroy the moral fiber of American life is now one of their most potent footholds towards their own ultimate victory over us.

"Fluoridation of our community water systems can well become their most subtle weapon for our sure physical and mental deterioration...

"As a research chemist of established standing, I built within the past 22 years, 3 American chemical plants and licensed 6 of my 53 patents. Based on my years of practical experience in the health-food and chemical field, let me warn: fluoridation of drinking water is criminal insanity, sure national suicide. Don't do it.

"Even in small quantities, sodium fluoride is a deadly poison to which no effective antidote has been found. Every exterminator knows that it is the most efficient rat-killer. ... Sodium fluoride is entirely different from organic calcium-fluoro-phosphate needed by our bodies and provided by nature, in God's great providence and love, to build and strengthen our bones and our teeth. This organic calcium-fluoro-phosphate, derived from proper foods, is an edible organic salt, insoluble in water and assimilable by the human body, whereas the non-organic sodium fluoride used in fluoridating water is instant poison to the body and fully water soluble.

The body refuses to assimilate it. "Careful, bonafide laboratory experimentation by conscientious, patriotic research chemists, and actual medical experience, have both revealed that instead of preserving or promoting 'dental health,' fluoridated drinking water destroys teeth, before adulthood and after, by the destructive mottling and other pathological conditions it actually causes in them, and also creates many other very grave pathological conditions in the internal organisms of bodies consuming it. How can it be called a "health" plan? What's behind it?

FLUORIDE IN YOUR WATER

Sodium Fluoride is a highly toxic poison, the active ingredient in rat poison. A neurotoxin, it causes permanent changes in behavior and stains, ruins white teeth (fluorosis).

The WARNING on the bag says it targets body organs, the entire nervous system (the brain) and the teeth. Fluoride is added to the water, why is your government poisoning you?

DDees.com

"That any so-called "doctors" would persuade a civilized nation to add voluntarily a deadly poison to its drinking water systems is unbelievable. It is the height of criminal insanity. "No wonder Hitler and Stalin fully believed and agreed from 1939 to 1941 that, quoting from both Lenin's Last Will and Hitler's Mein Kampf:

"America we shall demoralize, divide, and destroy from within." ...

"Are our Civil Defense organizations and agencies awake to the perils of water poisoning by fluoridation? Its use has been recorded in other countries. Sodium fluoride water solutions are the cheapest and most effective rat killers known to chemists: colorless, odorless, tasteless; no antidote, no remedy, no hope: Instant and complete extermination of rats. ...

"Fluoridation of water systems can be slow national suicide, or quick national liquidation. It is criminal insanity--treason!"

Dr. E.H. Bronner, Mfg. Research Chemist, Los Angeles.

Sodium Fluoride is currently rapidly since the 1950,s.

Sodium Fluoride is also registered with the EPA as a rat its use in low levels in water poses no adverse health concerns. There has been considerable research done on fluoride regarding cancer, birth little has been done on its

First Study to Find Neurological Deficits After Fluoride Exposure

Chinese investigations have shown levels of fluoride in drinking water at levels of 3-11 ppm affect the nervous system without first causing physical malformations. Another Chinese study found Attention Deficit Disorders in adult humans if sublingual drops containing 100 ppm of sodium fluoride were administered. Sources of fluoride exposure include processed beverages, toothpastes, mouth rinses, dietary supplements and food. This is an exposure level potentially relevant to humans because toothpastes contain 1000 to 1500 ppm fluoride and mouth rinses contain 230-900 ppm fluoride. In the 1995 article appearing in the journal Neurotoxicology and Teratology, Dr. Phyllis J Mullenix states, "Still unexplored, however, is the possibility that fluoride exposure is linked with subtle brain dysfunction. This is the first study to demonstrate that central nervous system output is vulnerable to fluoride, that the effects on behavior depend on the age at exposure and that fluoride accumulates in brain tissues. Of course behaviors per se do not extrapolate, but a generic behavioral pattern disruption as found in this rat study can be indicative of potential for motor dysfunction, IQ deficits and/or

I'm writing this in an attempt to connect the dots that fascist are in control of the united states so readers can see what I'm writing about is the truth so you can do your own research on these subjects if you care about this country and the world the future of our children are in our hands these people can care less about the color of your skin we are all in the same boat black white Asian Spanish Greek Arab etc.....we are all human beings on one planet floating in space looking at people in race form is division which they the elite created to keep us divided and fighting each other there is no races we are all human beings it's up to us to change things these things are happening because we let them happen we all need to stand in our power there's more of us then them this is what the elite truly fear they have power because we give it to them humanity know there's something wrong but they just can't put their finger on it well this is an attempt to do just that so I can show you what's wrong so you can do your own research and share what you found with others so others can wake up because many are asleep but our numbers of awake people are growing I took the red like neo in the matrix will you it's all up to us if you have never voted in your life now is the time to register there's a 2012 election coming up and voting is vital to get our country back. you see all the Establishment candidates put out there making promises their just going to break you know exactly what I'm talking about but there is hope a candidate by the name of congressman Ron Paul he speaks truth his congressional record is consistent on what he's been talking about for 30 plus years a protector of the constitution property rights privacy rights gun rights he wants to lower taxes and make gold and silver backing our money he wants to end the wars and bring the troops home he want to audit the federal reserve he want to protect our borders he wants to return our country to its rightful place a beacon of freedom if you've haven't heard of Ron Paul youtube him so you can see for your self his consistency and his message of freedom this is our chance to take our country back from the wall street bankers and put the power back where it belongs in the hands of the people. these guys pictured below are crony capitalist they have a monopoly on the creation of money we have got to get that back its vital to getting our nation back and on track for real job creation in this great country we have. how can we create real jobs if the federal reserve and our own government has shipped them over seas through legislation such as nafta and gatt if you are wondering why your unemployed the federal reserve is the reason. there's a explanation why jobs where shipped over seas and I'm gonna revel why because they the federal reserve have inflated the Dollar so much to keep prices low so you the consumer won't notice shipped our great paying jobs over seas. There are other reasons. we were a great industrial nation to bring their world government. They have had to destroy the American economy in the process because they knew the American economy and American freedom are a danger to their new world order it is absolutely vital that we stop them. We cannot let them succeed because if you think, society is bad now you haven't seen anything yet these people are murders right now their semi out in the open, and they'll kill anyone out in the open when they have total control right now is our chance to share this information and protest against them while we still have freedom left. They will murder millions assassinate whoever even their own kind, They will stop at nothing to bring in this new world order. Even the Statue of Liberty is a Masonic Goddess link below all politicians from around the world are masons.

These next two pages I thought it would be great to share these heart felt words with you because I agree with them thank you for reading enjoy.

<http://www.fascistnews.com/Mission.html>

I am but one man. This site is my sole endeavor. I do not wish to tell you what to think. But think you must.

I present here much of our world's problems and horrors. I also present solutions. Most of what you will find here is not original information. I have collected it from a multitude of other sources. There is nothing new under the sun. You don't have to agree with my opinions here. There are plenty of you who don't. There are plenty of you who do.

I do not buy into the age old notion that the truth is some illusive mystery that no one can ever have or only a few can comprehend. I have found that truth is out and in the open for all to see. It is we who decide to pretend not to see it. We bury our own consciousness in choices designed to make us feel as though it is beyond our control or that we are just the victim in it all or that we simply did not see it happen.

The answer to your question is not located out there somewhere. The answer has always been right inside of you. I don't have an answer for you. In order for you to hear the answer, you must first be able to formulate the question. If you can't ask the right question then you are lost because you chose to be lost.

I am a know it all. I have all the answers. But you have all the answers too. So we are the same in that respect.

Even if I told you your answer... you would not believe it. Even after seeing it for yourself... most of you will not believe it. Even after most of us yelling it out to you... you don't believe it.

So then... what is your mechanism for digesting information into newly discovered and quantifiable knowledge?

Is it the information you receive from the television? Is it information you receive from you friends and family? Do you have one at all? This is something good for you to contemplate.

I choose to search and I choose to trust in my judgments and I can admit when it is that I have made a mistake and I can change my mind. My mind is mine to change as I will.

Some say that ignorance is bliss. And I have to agree to a certain extent.
Some say that awakening is overrated. And I have to agree to a certain extent.

Somewhere in between a tormented intelligent mind and blissfully ignorant fool is where we all reside.

The problem that exists now is that there are a few Beings that specialize in extortion who are about to take us all down a horror filled path that none of us want to experience.

We need everyone to reach a common level of consciousness for now. We have business to attend to... then you can go back to sleep. After the work, I will need the rest as well.

Success, in this case, may just depend on numbers.

Those who have extorted every situation into monopolization of control of the world's population will perform all imaginable and unimaginable atrocities to perpetuate their way.

This is counter to universal law and a balance must be restored. If not then much needless suffering will occur. The sooner we get started the better.

The blissful will awake with a crashing deafness of the abyss, those of us who saw it coming... will escape to place were the rest of you will not be able to follow.

I wish to leave no one behind. Especially... if they were only sleeping.

This site will take time to create so I ask for your patience and I ask you to share it will as many as possible.

A few words cannot capture the importance of this one sentence....The power of choice may be the one true divine power that you REALLY have.

Be aware of those who would seek out ways to limit your use of that divine power... especially in the name of security...The road forks up ahead... which way will you choose?

I found this on this site <http://www.fascistnews.com/Mission.html>

Georgia Guidestones

The proof of fascism in this U.S. is undeniable it's amazing how nobody even notices them right in our faces my goal of this document is to make the American people see the truth and be very mind full of what our representatives are up to and what these fascist are capable if we don't study history were doomed to repeat it that's the truth. I'm not sure if anybody realizes that we are in deep trouble if we don't start turning things around in our country by getting involved in politics and voting in the right kind of people not controlled by wall street this is just a warning.

Japanese American Internment

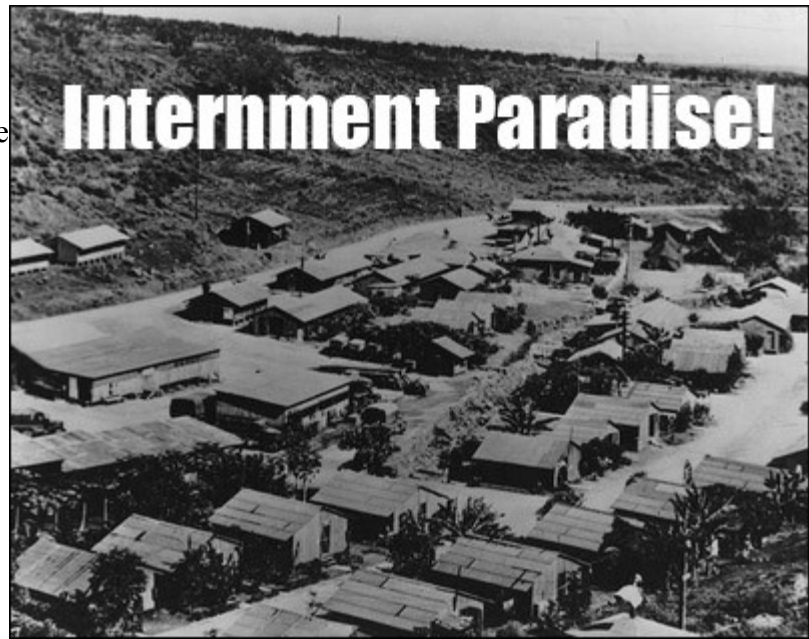

Japanese-American internment was the relocation and internment by the United States government in 1942 of approximately 110,000 Japanese Americans and Japanese who lived along the Pacific coast of the United States to camps called "War Relocation Camps," in the wake of Imperial Japan's attack on Pearl Harbor. The internment of Japanese Americans was applied unequally throughout the United States. Japanese Americans who lived on the West Coast of the United States were all interned, while in Hawaii, where more than 150,000 Japanese Americans composed over one-third of the territory's population, 1,200 to 1,800 Japanese Americans were interned. Of those interned, 62% were American citizens.

On November 26, 1941, president Franklin D. Roosevelt orders Henry Field, Anthropologist to the President, to produce a list with names and addresses of all American-born and foreign-born Japanese residing in America. After the attack, he authorized the internment with Executive Order 9066, issued February 19, 1942, which allowed local military commanders to designate "military areas" as "exclusion zones," from which "any or all persons may be excluded." This power was used to declare that all people of Japanese ancestry were excluded from the entire Pacific coast, including all of California and most of Oregon and Washington, except for those in internment camps. In 1944, the Supreme Court upheld the constitutionality of the exclusion orders, while noting that the provisions that singled out people of Japanese ancestry were a separate issue outside the scope of the proceedings.

The United States Census Bureau assisted the internment efforts by providing confidential neighborhood information on Japanese Americans. The Bureau's role was denied for decades but was finally proven in 2007.

DOJ Internment Camps

During World War II, over 7,000 Japanese Americans and Japanese from Latin America were held in internment camps run by the Immigration and Naturalization Service, part of the Department of Justice. In this period, Latin Americans of Japanese ancestry were rounded up and transported to American internment camps run by the U.S. Justice Department. These Latin American internees were eventually, through the efforts of civil rights attorney Wayne M. Collins, offered "parole" relocation to the labor-starved farming community in Seabrook, New Jersey. Many became naturalized American citizens or Japanese Americans after the war. SOURCE: http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Japanese_American_internment

Quotes

He who passively accepts evil is as much involved in it as he who helps to perpetrate it. He who accepts evil without protesting against it is really cooperating with it

The only thing necessary for the triumph of evil is for good men and women to do nothing.

BECAUSE THERE'S A WAR ON FOR YOUR MIND

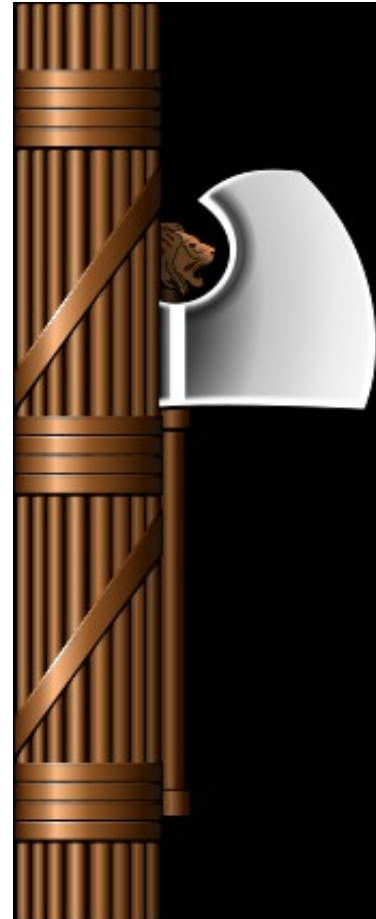

Fascist Symbolism In America I

As there were many different manifestations of fascism, especially during the interwar years, there were also many different symbols of Fascist movements. Fascist symbolism typically involved nationalist imagery. :Source

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Fascist_symbolism

Common symbolism of fascist movements

Organized fascist movements have militarist-appearing uniforms for their members; use paramilitaries for political violence against opponents; use national symbols, historical symbols of a nation as symbols of their movement; and use orchestrated rallies for propaganda purposes. Fascist movements are led by a "Leader" (i.e. Duce, Führer, Caudillo...) who is publicly idolized in propaganda as the nation's saviour. A number of fascist movements use a straight-armed salute. The use of symbols, graphics, and other artifacts created by fascist and totalitarian governments has been noted as a key aspect of their propaganda. Most Fascist movements adopted symbols of Ancient Roman or Greek origin. (The Nazi use of Roman Standards during rallies, the Italian adoption of the Fasces, the Spanish "Falange" from the Spanish word for "Phalanx")

Flag of the National Fascist Party

Flag of the National Socialist German Workers' Party (NSDAP), bearing the swastika, the premier symbol of Nazism and remains strongly associated with it in the Western world.

Fascism is a radical, authoritarian nationalist political ideology. It advocates the creation of a totalitarian single-party state that seeks the mass mobilization of a nation through indoctrination, physical education, and family policy (such as eugenics)

Fascists seek to purge forces, ideas, people, and systems deemed to be the cause of decadence and degeneration, and to produce their nation's rebirth based on commitment to the national community based on organic unity, in which individuals are bound together by supra personal connections of ancestry, culture, and

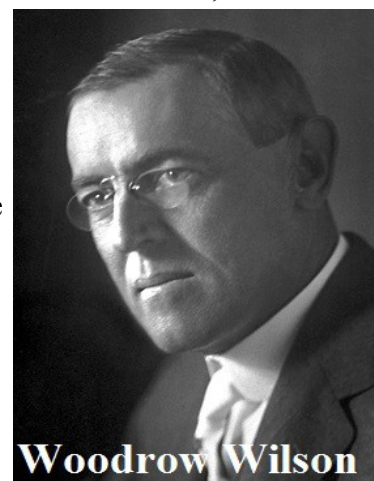

blood. Fascists believe that a nation requires strong leadership, singular collective identity, and the will and ability to commit violence and wage war in order to keep the nation strong. Fascist governments forbid and suppress opposition to the state.

Fascism promotes violence and war as actions that create national regeneration, spirit and vitality. It views conflict as a fact of life that is responsible for all human progress. It exalts militarism as providing positive transformation in society, in providing spiritual renovation, education, instilling of a will to dominate in people's character, and creating national comradeship through military service. Fascists commonly utilize paramilitary organizations for violent attacks on opponents, or to overthrow a political system. :Source

<http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Fascism> does anything you just read sound familiar? It will become more clear as I continue to explain from the research I've done. The above page was a brief introduction of Fascist symbolism to get you the reader familiar with this symbolism and meaning of the system and how it works. As I continue to show evidence of this very system is affecting our lives till this day without you even knowing about it. Communism/

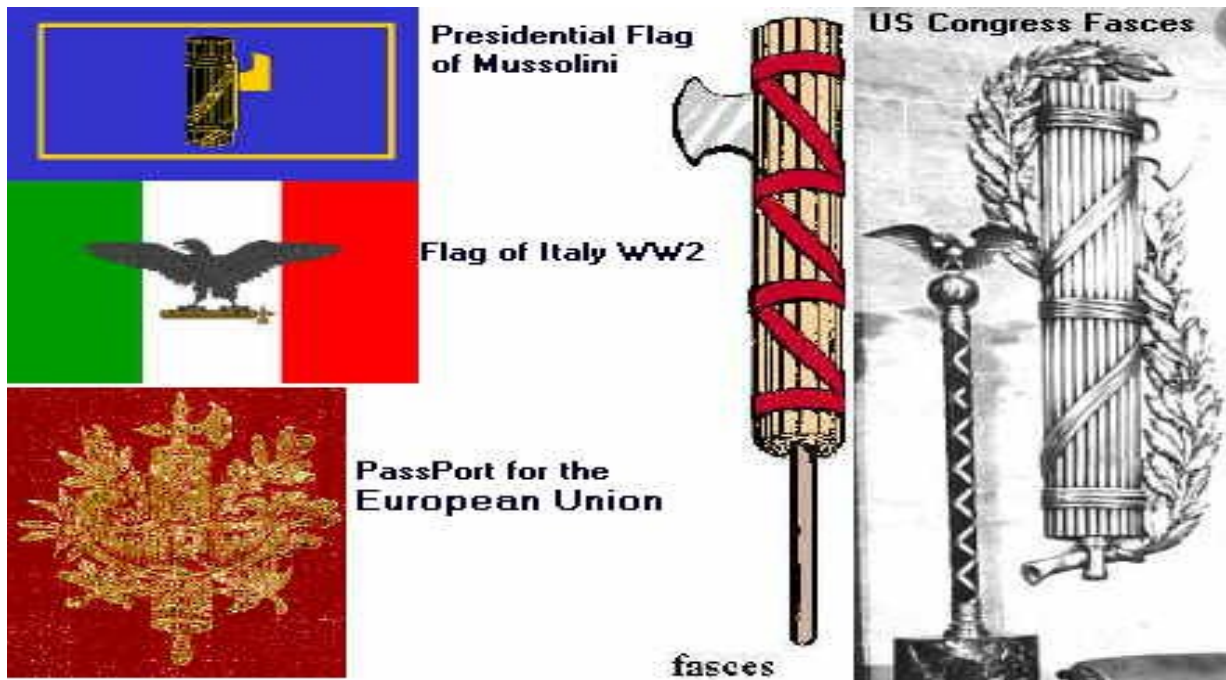

Socialism/Fascism are all part of the same tree just different branches. These systems are power from the top down meaning the government controls everything like the news, what type of car you can drive, healthcare, food, your property, schools and the information your children receives while in school free speech zones etc. In this system there are no limits to government restraining itself. This is truly a tyrannical system to enslave the population it rules over where people have no rights unless the government grants you those rights. As a human being no matter if you believe in god or not god gave you your rights not the government. I feel you should always have a choice to do what you want as long as you don't hurt any one in the process. No one man can take those rights no matter what law is written. Just because something is made a law that doesn't mean its right. Look at all the damage these systems have hurt humanity from Hilter to Mussolini to Mao to Stalin how many people have they killed or maimed under their rule, millions. Our founding fathers knew this they studied different systems to the find the right one to create the United States of America. What they came up with was a republic, a system off the Dutch model of government. A system of power from the bottom up meaning we the people have the power a system where you have a choice a system where everybody will be heard and the government will be restrained by the power of the constitution. I'm gonna give you an example, let say the United States was a mansion and you had servants (politicians) would you let your servant dictate to you what you can and can not do in your own house. No, but that is exactly what's happening in our country the servants (politicians) are out of control and running a muck..They are not listening to we the people our politicians are being control by another entity.

A quote from former president Woodrow Wilson "I have unwittingly ruined my country. A great industrial nation is controlled by it's system of credit...We have come to be one of the worst ruled, one of the most completely controlled and dominated Governments in the civilized world, no longer a Government by free opinion, no longer a Government of conviction and vote of the majority, but, a Government by opinion and the duress of a small group of dominant men. There is a power so organized, so subtle, so watchful, so interlocked, so complete, so pervasive that prudent men better not speak above their breath when they speak in condemnation of it". This is why we have to pay attention to things that really matter like family and politics not sports or TV shows or anything they (the people in control) put in our faces to keep us preoccupied because whatever laws, they (government) pass affects all of us. The people in control have built this society of lies and deception to control humanity to hide certain information the truth from us. This information is available thanks to the internet. Information they've known, we now know. That's why they're trying to control the internet. What I'm about to reveal will shock your very foundation. There are elements of fascism in the United States. I will show proof. A lot of people don't realize its right in our faces these photos I'm going to show are intertwined in the symbols of our United States government and worldwide. This will shock you.

We have lost our way. Our country and the world is being controlled by a invisible force behind a curtain the people you are shown on TV in government are just puppets The people you elect are put there to not change things for the betterment of the people, but they're put there to keep the same screwed up and upside down way. The same people controlling the world are helping elect these people by fundraising for there campaigns because both parties in the United States are bought and paid for and controlled from the beginning. I've been doing a lot of research over the past two and a half to three years on this very subject. To some it might be unbelievable, but its all unfortunately true. I am fully awake and I thank god for that. I encourage everyone reading this document to do your own research and you will find what I found, the truth, It's on the internet for free. Thank god for the internet. Lets all protect this great tool called the internet.

Where would we be without it. The elite are trying very hard to control it and we can not let that happen. This country was built on principles of freedom for all. It is vital for us to pay attention and be aware of what's going on. Be mindful about what our politicians are up to. TV main stream news is not going to inform you they are also controlled by the elite. They pay and own these people so they can not be trusted. It's propaganda filtered news the main stream media hides the truth. There is a congressman from Texas, Ron Paul. He running for president in 2012. He ran in past years with little or no coverage on the main stream, they are trying to suppress his message but its not working This year is different. The economy is in shambles, the government is to big and over stepping its constitutional boundaries, our countries debt is out of control. Everything he has been talking about for the past 30 years is coming true about the federal reserve how they facilitate the wars how they cause inflation which devalues our dollar which in turn creates higher prices for food gasoline cloths etc.....Ron Paul understands what the founders of this country intended he understands power from the bottom up he has written about it in book like / Gold, Peace, and Prosperity / the Revolution a Manifesto / End the Fed / Liberty Defined 50 Essential Issues That Affect Our freedom just to name a few, I've learned anything the media says believe the opposite so if the media say the economy is fine it's not if they're not giving Ron Paul coverage that means he's the right man for the job it's his time in 2012, he's been right for all these years look at his record youtube. him find the truth for yourself.
